To Wheelwrights, Blacksmiths, Tanners. Harness-Makers, Saddlers, Hatters, &c.

BELIEVING as I do, that PROVIDENCE, at Fairfax Court-House, would be a suitable situation for mechanics of the above description, I offer to such, lots in that village for sale, on ground rent for ever—will build and furnish suitable houses and rent to them, or furnish brick to them to build with; and invite any who feel disposed to settle there, for the purpose of carrying on their respective trades to advantage, to come and view the situation. It is a very public place, the centre of the county, where the superior and county courts are held. The Little River Turnpike Road passes through this little town from Alexandria westward, and where all the public meetings for the county, &c. are held; and where trades of the aforesaid description being carried on, would meet with great encouragement, and be a public convenience to the country around. No situation can be more healthy—good water, and fire wood cheap. Mechanics of the above description must generally depend on the country people, farmers, &c. to be their customers. Here they would be in a convenient situation for all the purposes. I invite a call, and view for themselves. I would also furnish lots adjacent, from one to five acres each, for cultivation, pasture, &c. on moderate terms; all of which can be shown, and terms made known, on application to RICH'D. RAN away on the 28th of April, from the farm of the subscriber, in Dogue Neck, Fairfax Co. Virginia, negro HARRY, aged about twenty three years, about five feet ten inches high, very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly: had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth. I have every reason to believe that he is endeavoring to pass for a free man, and as such went off in some of the bay craft during the late fishing season. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. I will give twenty dollars, if taken in the county of Fairfax, or district of Columbia; if beyond that distance, the above reward, provided he is secured in jail so that I get him again. IS known to have been kidnapped from a field near Germantown, between the hours of 12 and 2 o'clock, on the 30th ult. whilst at work alone, a Free Black Man, named HENRY HUDSON, aged between 21 and 22 years, of the height of five feet five inches, very black complexion and dark eyes, has a scar under his left arm, between the wrist and elbow, occasioned by the cut of an axe.

He is by occupation a farmer, a native of Kent county, in the state of Delaware, had on a blue cloth roundabout jacket, old black silk vest, corded velvet pantaloons, and a wool hat.

He is a very civil, inoffensive man, with rather a down look. There is reason to suppose that he was decoyed into a carriage, and conveyed southward.

Any information respecting him will be thankfully received. Keepers of turnpike gates, toll bridges, and taverns, are particularly requested to give such information as may be in their power.

Land Warrants,

FOR services in the revolutionary war, in the Virginia line on continental establishment.

Owners of, and those entitled (being all who served three years and upwards,) to warrants of the above description, are informed that, under the authority of a law of the United States, locations will, on the 4th day of July next, be permitted to be made on some valuable lands on the Scioto river, and the head waters of the Great Miami river—And as it will be the last opportunity to acquire good land, owners of warrants will do well not to neglect it.

Any warrants forwarded to the subscriber, will be located on such land as he may suppose most likely to please his employers. CADWALLADER WALLACE.

Chillicothe, (Ohio) April 15 19t

For Sale or Lease,

THE following tracts of land in Charles county, Maryland: one lying on the Potomac, at the mouth of Pomonkey creek, containing three hundred and forty acres, about 16 miles from Alexandria, the larger portion level land, of a stiff soil, well adapted to the cultivation of corn, wheat and tobacco, and equal in fertility to any in the neighborhood. On this farm is one of the most elegant sites for building of all those fine heights which border the Potomac, commanding the most extensive view of the adjacent country, both in Virginia and Maryland, for more than twenty miles up and down the river: located in a genteel neighborhood, it would make an agreeable residence, and from its proximity to market, with the advantage of the best navigation, an extremely profitable farm.—The tenant's houses would accommodate the negroes for its cultivation.

A Tract, about one mile back from the former, containing 334 acres, a large portion in wood, white and red oak, and some chesnut; the remainder a tenement in tolerable repair, the whole a high stiff soil, similar to the one above mentioned.

A Tract, lying at the mouth of Mattawoman Creek, about 25 miles from Alexandria, the whole first rate flat river land, now completely enclosed.—On this tract is a noted fishery, called Rum Point, at which there has been cleared upwards of two thousand dollars per annum, and where independent of the fish sold on the shore, there might be put up from one to two thousand barrels every season; besides the profits of the fishery, the advantage of manuring the farm with the offal of the shore, the whole, with a small portion of industry, might be made to produce ten barrels of corn per acre. On the shore, are a dwelling house, houses for holding salt, and cutting any quantity of fish, and for the accommodation of hands.

A Tract, lying about 1½ miles from the last mentioned, containing 236 acres, more than 200 of which are in wood, and would cut from 25 to 3o cords per acre, within one mile of the river, where wood has rarely sold for less than five dollars per cord. It will be divided into 50 or 25 acre lots, to suit purchasers.—If preferred, the wood will be sold standing, for so much per acre.

If not disposed of, previous to the first day of Sept. next, the above mentioned arable lands, will be leased out, upon advantageous terms, for five or seven years, at the option of the lessees.

Application to be made to the subscriber, residing near the head of Mattawoman Creek, Charles county, Maryland.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 10, 1819.

ARRIVAL OF THE PRESIDENT.

Washington, August 9.

We are happy to learn that the President of the United States, attended by his private secretaries, Mr. Gouverneur and Lieut. Monroe, arrived in this city yesterday morning, and in good health, notwithstanding his long and fatiguing journey through the Southern and Western States.

The Secretary of the Navy arrived at his lodgings at Strother's Hotel on Friday evening, from a visit to his family in New-York. [National Intelligencer.

Annapolis, (Maryland,) August 5.

An occurrence has recently taken place in this city, which is calculated to awaken the deepest anxiety and strongest indignation in the bosom of every man who loves liberty and is attached to the constitution of his country. It is painful to us to be obliged to notice a transaction which is likely to become the subject of judicial investigation; but we find it impossible to repress the indignation, which every man must have felt, on witnessing the scene which was exhibited here on Friday last. At the approaching session of our court it will be decided, whether a private citizen, who considers himself agrieved by the conduct of a collector, is to be deprived of the right of demanding redress for the injury sustained, in the same peaceful and legal manner that he would against any other individual. And, above all, whether the collector of the port is invested with power to call out the troops of the United States for the purpose of resisting the constituted authorities of the state. These are serious and solemn questions, which will no doubt be deliberately weighed, and impartially and justly decided, by those to whom the important duty of administering the laws is committed. All that we say is, that if proceedings of this kind are suffered to pass with impunity, we may prepare to bid a long farewell to the liberties of our country.—We have obtained from a friend the following statement of the case, which we submit to our readers without further comment.

A citizen of Md. considering himself entitled to goods which he thought had been illegally and unwarrantably wrested from him by the collector of this port, sued out a writ of replevin from the court of Anne-Arundle county, for the purpose of trying the title to them. The writ was placed in the hands of the high sheriff, who delivered it to one of his deputies to be executed.—When the deputy proceeded to discharge his duty, part of the goods were lying on a wharf in the neighborhood of the collector's warehouse. The officer of justice took possession of them, when they were immediately seized and taken from him by a son of the collector, and some other men with him. The sheriff on being informed of this outrage, applied in person to the collector for a delivery of the goods. His request was rejected.

He then intimated to the collector, that he should be under the necessity of performing by forcible means the duty which was imposed upon him by law and his oath of office. To this intimation the collector replied, that he should resort to force in order to prevent the execution of the writ. About an hour afterwards the sheriff proceeded towards the warehouse in which the goods were contained, and on his approach discovered a detachment of United States troops drawn up in military array, with an officer at their head, across the street which led to the place. When the sheriff advanced to the spot where they were stationed, one of the soldiers presented a loaded musket to his breast so near that he was almost touched by the bayonet, and told him that if he proceeded another step his life would be the forfeit.

The sheriff perceiving that it would be impracticable for him to proceed without hazarding the lives of many of his fellow citizens in a contest with American troops, desisted from the attempt, and lodged a complaint with the chief justice of the state. Warrants were immediately issued for the apprehension of some of the offenders, who we understand have been arrested, and compelled to enter into a recognizance for their appearance at the next session of the court, to answer for the daring outrage they have committed on the law of the land, and the liberty of the free people of this country. This is a simple recital of the facts that occurred. Comment is unnecessary, and would perhaps at the present time be improper.

St. Louis, July 9.

The postcript to the last paper which states the return of the military expedition, is incorrect. No part of it has returned. The steam boat, however, gets on slowly, and with many stoppages.—The keel boats go on rapidly, and passed St. Charles (18 miles from Belle Fontaine) two days ahead of the former. The contents of the steam boats will be transferred to keels and barges. The river is in fine order; the July flood is coming down, and swelling the stream with the last of the annual tributes. The failure of the steamboats is attributable to their construction, or management, and not to the rivers.

LATEST.

The Remittance brings Liverpool papers to the 17th, and London to the 15th of June; but they are barren of news.

The markets remained as per last accounts, with the exception of Stocks, which were rising, both in France and England. [Gazette.

Tuscaloosa, (A. T.) July 1.

By a gentleman from Tombecbee we are informed that General Jackson has written to Mehuleetubbee, head chief of one of the three grand divisions of the Chactaw nation, through the interpreter Peachland, requesting them to meet him at a time and place specified, (when or where our informant did not learn) to hold a conference on the subject of the sale of that part of their nation to the United States. When our informant left there Mehuleetubbee and Peachland were on a tour through the district to consult the other chiefs and head men on the subject; and the opinion was almost universal among the whites in the neighborhood, that the district will be ceded to the United States either by sale or by exchange of lands on the Arkansaw—though not immediately.

We learn from another source, that a deputation of the Chactaw nation visited the country on the Arkansaw, with a view of such an exchange, and have made a very favorable report both of the country and quantity of game. In consequence of which a great number of the Chactaws have expressed a willingness to exchange with the United States on the same terms as those granted to the Cherokees. The district embraces the military crossing on the Beskbee, where it has lately been determined, the great federal road from Nashville to New-Orleans shall cross that river.

Natchez, July 14.

THE LATEST NEWS FROM TEXAS.

Gen. LONG, the chief of the army of Texas, raised the republican flag 12 miles on the other side of the Sabine river, on the 21st ult. He had with him 600 Americans and Spaniards, besides 3000 Indians. He would, in five days after the 29th ult. fix on his head-quarters at Nacagdoches.

A Letter from an officer in the Mexican expedition, dated, "Camp Freeman, Texas, June 23," says:

"We got on to Alexandria, very well with hard rowing from the mouth of Red river, it being high and rapid. Our force is augmenting daily. The subject is laudable, and is entirely popular, from your state (Mississippi) to this place, as well as in every other part from which we have heard. Very many are preparing to join us from different parts of Red river, &c. The citizens in this part of Texas, are pleased to have an opportunity of assisting in throwing off the Spanish Monarchy. In fine, every thing at present seems to smile on us. I am just returned from riding all night on business for the army. We leave here this afternoon in pursuit of a party of traders supposed to be Royalists, going to St. Antonio, with goods. The troops are busy cleaning their guns for a warm chase. We shall probably overtake them tomorrow night.

"General Long arrived here on the 21st, and on that day we raised the flag of Republicanism.* Men are arriving daily, as well as citizens enrolling themselves as Militia. Some republican Spaniards of note, and of considerable wealth, have afforded us great assistance. You shall hear from us again shortly.'

* A letter from another source, of a prior date, said, that Gen. A——r was to take the command of this expedition.

From the Plattsburgh Republican of the 24th of July.

A young man was taken up in this village on the 21st inst. and committed to goal for passing counterfeit money. He had in his possession 12 counterfeit 10 dollar Bills on the Montreal Bank, and he had passed two of the same denomination in Chazy. His name is Simon Watson, late of Windsor, Ver. He states that he has been clerk or an assistant to the keeper of the State Prison, in Windsor, and that he imbibed a prediliction for this kind of trafic from a tenant of the prison. He left his parents a short time since, under pretence of going to New-York, for the purpose of getting into better business—his father gave him 140 dollars to defray his expences. Instead of going south he went north to a place called Slab city, near Missisque bay, where he purchased 100 dollars of bad money for 10 good, and the venders made him a present of 40 dollars more.—Having replenished his pockets he went to St. Johns, and passed one of his 10 dollar notes—Suspicion was excited—his money examined, and while measures were going on to arrest him he was assisted off, for which he gave 30 dols, in good money.

He came from Chazy and from thence to this place. He rode with the mail carrier and when arrived he requested him to get two of his 10 dollar notes exchanged for Plattsburgh bills, saying that he wished to get some specie from the Bank. They were accordingly presented at a store where a boy was attending, and exchanged. The bills were immediately shown to a person who detected them, and who, after questioning the mail carrier and his passenger, called on a magistrate who examined Watson, and drew from him an acknowledgment of the manner in which he had been led along in the business, &c.

Watson is about 22 years of age, well dressed and apparently well bred. He has recommendations from persons of respectability and he affects to be much distressed in anticipating the pangs which a knowledge of his situation will cause his parents and relations. He requested the magistrate not to disclose his name, but he has himself given his name to several persons.

The above counterfeit Bills are so well executed that the best judges of money might be deceived by them, they compare remarkably well with the true bills.

In the bills that we have seen, the period at No. was omitted in the plate, and was supplied with a pen: the capital G. in the Cashier's name looks more like an S than on the true bills, and the paper has more of a blueish cast. In the figure of a man on the monument, the counterfeits have a light shade quite around the neck, whereas in the true bills the collar of the coat covers and gives a dark shade to the back part of the neck. The face of the engraving generally has not quite as smooth an appearance as that on the true bills.—All of the letter B.

Cincinnati, [Ohio] July 20.

TRIAL FOR SWINDLING.

Before the city court last week, came on the trial of David E Girvin and Wm. Barker, who were indicted for obtaining sixty dollars of William Wilson by false pretences. The testimony was of a nature to satisfy every man who heard it, of the guilt of the defendants. The jury after a few minutes returned a verdict of guilty, without leaving their box. On Thursday afternoon they were sentenced to six months imprisonment, and to pay a fine of one hundred dollars each. They had previously been convicted of gaming and sentenced to pay a fine of seventy dollars each, and to give security for their good behavior for one year in the sum of five hundred dollars each.

Cincinnati has been infested with a gang of these gentry for several months past, and it is hoped the result of these trials will have a salutary tendency.

Mount-Pleasant, [N. Y.] Aug. 3.

CASUALTY.

Drowned, in Tew's Pond, Rockland county, on Wednesday last, Mr. William Howell, of this village, in the 38th year of his age. Mr H. in company with some other gentlemen, had crossed the river in the morning, for the purpose of fishing; while in the act of taking a fish from his hook, the canoe in which Mr. H. was seated, accidentally tipped, and he was plunged into the water. He immediately sunk, and his companions were unable to render him any assistance. His body was found on Thursday, and on Friday morning, his funeral obsequies were performed.

Charleston, August 2.

The following affidavit will give a fuller developement of the late act of piracy and murder, than any statement hitherto obtained.

State of South Carolina, }
Charleston District. }

THOMAS NEWTON being duly sworn, deposeth, that he was late one of the crew of the British brig Ann, of Scarborough, commanded by Thomas Sunley—that he sailed in the said brig Ann, as an apprentice to the master, (who was the deponent's uncle) from the Matanzas, on the 26th June, bound for Falmouth, in England, with a cargo of sugar and coffee—the crew was composed of the master, Thomas Sunley; David May, the mate; William Quince, the carpenter; John Hall, the cook, and six others; one named John Weyman, a boy who attended the cabin, and James Carley—that nothing occurred until three days after her departure from the Matanzas, when on the 29th, about 3 o'clock in the afternoon, they observed a boat coming towards them—when they came within hail, asked them what they wanted—they said they wanted a rope for the boat, which was immediately handed to them—they then rushed on board, armed with cutlasses, muskets and pistols, eight in number, and ordered all forward, excepting the captain—a sloop was then in sight—he then heard the mate of the sloop, who they called Peter, ask the captain of the brig if he had any money on board, and the captain answered no—they then inquired what cargo they had on board—the captain told them sugar and coffee—the people then who had been in the boat, took possession of the brig and hove her to, the brig's people assisting—they hove her to until the sloop came up—as soon as the sloop came up, the mate of the sloop ordered six of the men belonging to the brig, two of the men belonging to the sloop, and the captain of the brig, to go on board of the sloop, which was then laying a quarter of a mile distant—deponent was one of the six men of the brig—that they arrived on board the sloop—the captain was then called to go down in the cabin with the captain of the sloop—they were there together about ten minutes; when they came on deck, and the captain of the sloop ordered two of the brig's people to come on board, and the others he sent back to the brig—the deponent and captain Sunley were two of those sent back, and they returned to the brig—the sloop then sailed on, and the brig after her—they had ordered the brig to follow her—and soon after two more of the brig's people were sent on board of the sloop—two men belonging to the sloop carried them on board, and returned again to the brig—and soon after three more of the sloop's crew went on board of the sloop, and returned back in a quarter of an hour for the deponent—captain Sunley then called him down in the cabin, and told him to take care of himself, and he did not wish him to go—the deponent not having good sight excused himself, and they said blind or not blind he must go—they then took him on board the sloop—and the captain took him down into the cabin, and then told him if he did not tell what money was on board, he would shoot him instantly, at the same time holding a loaded pistol to his breast—deponent told him, that the captain had four doubloons, and 5 or 6 dollars and if he would only spare his life, he would go and shew him where it was—he replied, that he knew better; and sent him on deck, and gave orders to his people that if he moved from aft, to shoot him; about half an hour after he had been on deck, he heard muskets fired in the direction of the brig; the brig continued steering after the sloop all night, and in the morning, at day light, called to the sloop to send two men on board to help them to work the vessel.

Two men were then ordered to take two on board the brig, and soon after returned to the sloop, who after their return reported that they had shot the captain, the mate, the carpenter, the cook, and one man, who had been sick on board. Weyman, the little boy, belonging to the cabin, when the before named persons were killed, was obliged to stow himself away—the sloop still kept steering for the beach, & as soon as she got near enough, put her armament on shore, consisting of four carriage guns, muskets, cutlasses, and boarding pikes—the brig then got close to the shore, and came to anchor—and as soon as the guns, cutlasses, and ammunition, were landed, the whole crew of the sloop went on board the brig, in number eleven, cut away her sails, and run her on shore. As soon as they got on board the brig, they began to cut away the topmasts and yards, & threw them overboard; they then opened the hatches, and brought the sloop along side, and began to load her with the coffee, which had been in hogsheads and bags;—the second day after the brig was run on shore, they sent away four men belonging to the sloop, and one man to the brig, in the brig's yawl, to find another sloop which they said was lying about 120 miles off.—On the fourth day after the vessel was run aground, the sloop sailed with a full cargo of coffee, with the captain, the mate, a black man, and Weyman the cabin boy of the brig; and they said they would return in six days at farthest—the third day after the sloop left us, a schooner hove in sight, and the people on board the brig went in a boat to the schooner, and bro't her along side, and they agreed to take a load with the people belonging to the sloop for thirty doubloons—the money was paid, and the schooner took a cargo of sugar and coffee; and the two people belonging to the sloop, went on board the schooner and went off in her, with a full cargo—the second day after the schooner left them, finding that the sloop did not return, they put some provisions in the long boat, and left the brig, and three-fourths of the cargo, with not a soul on board. Neither brig or cargo had received any damage, except what was cut away—six days after leaving the brig, in the brig's boat, got into St. Mary's, and arrived on Wednesday, 14th instant. Three men belonging to the brig, and two to the sloop, left St. Mary's, the day after, in the sloop John Chevalier, Capt. Chevalier, and arrived in Savannah on the Friday following, the 16th instant. The boat they sold at St. Mary's, and the men belonging to the sloop received fifty-seven dollars for her, and they gave the deponent ten dollars of the money: he left them all in Savannah, on the night before the last---they boarded at Mr. Hubbert's---the two belonging to the sloop were called Smith and Jack; & one of the brig's men is named James Carley. Some of the crew of the sloop called her the Lawrence, and some of them the Black Joke.

He took his passage in a pilot boat, and arrived in Charleston on Saturday the 31st July---that the crew of the brig were forced to aid and assist the sloop's crew, for fear of their lives, which they threatened to take if they did not aid & assist---the guns, ammunition, &c. were landed on the beach and seven tierces of coffee.

The captain of the sloop was a little short man, pitted with the small pox, and large whiskers—that the brig when she was taken possession of, was not in any manner whatever in distress. The mate, Peter, is a stout man, black whiskers, tall, and is a daring, fierce looking fellow.

THOMAS NEWTON.

Sworn before me this 31st day of July, 1819. J. H. MITCHELL, Q. U.

An Extract from Irwin's Voyage up the Red Sea.

Yambo, Sunday, 25th May, 1777.

A caravan arrived this forenoon from Medina, which is but two days journey from hence. This was the first I had seen, and though it consisted but of 4 or 500 camels, I must confess myself to have been struck with the grandeur and novelty of the sight. We discerned it from afar, moving onward, with a quick though solemn pace, and as it passed near the beach, we could distinguish with our glasses, the economy of the whole. The major part of the camels were loaded with merchandize, and the rest carried the travellers and the principal camel drivers. The sun was in his meridian, and not a cloud obscured the heavens, nor a breath disturbed the surface of the deep. The natives were retired to the inmost recesses of their habitations, and not a beast was seen abroad, save the patient camel, that now braved the fiery ray, and marched with steady steps, beneath the united pressure of hunger, thirst and heat! While the wooden bark ploughs the deep, and wafts from shore to shore the produce of each clime, this living vessel traverses the pathless waste, fraught with the precious treasures of the east. A caravan of camels exploring the wilds of Arabia, with nothing in view but sand and sky, and conducted by the planets to its desired haven, may well be likened to a fleet of vessels, which are not more useful in their way, or wonderful in their structure. As the ship alone can outlive the seas, in which the weaker boat must perish, so is the camel peculiarly adapted to a region, in which no other class of beasts could bear fatigue. He too experiences the chance of sublunary things. His mighty strength, his dauntless heart, sink beneath the whirlwind's rage, and like the towering ship, which winds and waves assail with ceaseless fury, he yields at length to inevitable fate.

SATIRE ON THE WORLD.

BY SIR HENRY WOTTON.

The world's a bubble; and the life of man
Less than a span.
In his conception wretched: from the womb,
So to the tomb,
Nurst from his cradle, and bro't up to years,
With cares and fears.
Who then to frail mortality shall trust,
But lymns in water, or but writes in dust,
Yet whilst with sorrow here we live opprest,
What life is best?
Courts are but only superficial schools,
To dandle fools;
The rural part is turned into a den
Of savage men;
And where's a city from vice so free,
But may be term'd the worst of all the three?
Domestic cares affect the husband's bed,
Or pains his head.
Those that live single take it for a curse,
Or do things worse;
These would have children, those that have them, none,
Or wish them gone;
What is it, then, to have, or have no wife,
But single thraldom, or a double strife?
Our own affections still at home to please,
Is a disease;
To cross the seas to any foreign soil.
Peril and toil.
Wars with their noise affright us; when they cease,
We're worse in peace,
What, then, remains, but that we still should cry,
For being born, and being born to die?

100 Dollars Reward.

RUNAWAY from the subscriber, on Saturday last, a negro man named

LEWEY.

This negro is about 20 years of age, very likely, of a very black complexion, about five feet ten inches high, and very spare. His clothes are not recollected.—It is supposed that he took with him a fine cambric shirt, and a blue roundabout. It is probable that he will endeavor to make his way to Pennsylvania, and that he is in company with two others.

I will give Fifty Dollars for him, if taken in this county—One Hundred if taken out of it, and secured so that I get him again.

Stone Ware.

JOHN SWANN, manufacturer of stone ware, in the town of Alexandria, respectfully informs his customers, that he has been enabled lately to make a great improvement in his ware, although it has been at considerable expense and labor, and he looks to a generous public for a support. He also would inform them, that he has on hand, at this time, a large assortment of ware, equal to any made in the United States. The merchants in the adjoining counties in Virginia will find it to their advantage in buying stone ware from him, as he is determined none shall sell lower than he does, his prices being at this time from 20 to 30 per cent. lower than they are in Baltimore; and he will warrant his ware to be of a good quality, which has been acknowledged by the very best judges of that article.

Merchants from the country leaving or sending their orders to Messrs. J. & J. Douglas; B. Hampson & Co.; or J. W. Massey; he will have them promptly filled up, and all orders thankfully received by

He assures those who may feel inclined to commit the important trust of the education of their children to him, that nothing on his part shall be wanting to give satisfaction. Upon his new and judicious plan of instruction, boys of ordinary capacity may go through a regular course of arithmetic, English Grammar and Geography in six months, and at the same time pay every necessary attention to their exercises in Reading and Writing.

He possesses the most substantial testimonials of character and capability, which he will feel happy to produce to any gentleman who may call upon him.

Lands for Sale.

BY VIRTUE of a power of attorney from William S. Courts to the subscriber, will be sold at public sale.

On WEDNESDAY, the 18th AUGUST, in Port Tobacco, that valuable tract of land whereon John H. Barnes at present resides called

Whitland and Cole,

lying and being in Charles county Maryland, containing between three and four hundred acres. This land is handsomely situated, lying immediately on Matawoman Creek, at least one third of which is in wood, with a sufficient quantity of marsh land for grazing—that part of the land which is in cultivation is well adapted to the growth of corn, wheat and tobacco, and with proper care would be equal, if not superior to any land in that neighborhood. ALSO,

At the same time and place, will be offered for sale the plantation at present in the occupancy of Francis & Sam'l Wheeler, lying about one mile from the above place, containing about four hundred acres. As it is presumed that persons wishing to purchase will first view the premises, it is thought unnecessary to give a more particular description thereof. The terms of sale will be as follows: viz. possession given on the first day of January next, at which time one third of the purchase money will be required, the remaining two thirds at one and two years the purchaser giving bond with approved security with interest.—Upon the payment of the whole purchase money, a sufficient deed will be executed to the purchaser.

JOHN HOPKINS

Hill and Dale, April 20.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be governed by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment. may 25

Fairfax County,

June 21st, 1819.

AT a large and respectable meeting of the citizens of Fairfax county, convened for the purpose of forming an Auxiliary Colonization Society, William H. Fitzhugh, esq. was called to the chair, and Charles G. Broadwater appointed secretary—when, after the adoption of a constitution and necessary rules for their government, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:—

Wm. H. Fitzhugh, esq. president; Robert T. Thompson, Alexander Waugh, Wm. E. Beckwith, Daniel F. Dulany and John Reid, vice presidents; George W. Hunter, James Sangster, Richard C. Mason, John W. Ashton and Wm. Moss, managers; John Moore, treasurer; and C. G. Broadwater, secretary.

On motion, it was resolved, That the board of managers be requested to take as early and as efficient measures as possible for the attainment of the objects of the society.

Resolved, that the thanks of this Society be presented to the chairman for the able manner in which he has presided at this meeting.

Was Committed,

TO the jail for the county of Alexandria on the 3d ult. as a runaway, a negro man named WILLIAM BROWN; he appears to be about 24 years of age; 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high; round face, and black complexion; well set; has a scar on his left cheek, and several on his breast, also one on his left arm below the elbow, on the inside. Said negro says that his right name is Burril Artis; that he was born free at Prince Edward court house, Virginia, and so recorded in the clerk's office at that place; that he is thirty years of age; that he served with com. Barney on the Patuxent; he also served in the U. S. service, under Decatur, at Tripoli; and in both instances by the name of Burrill Artis.

The owner is requested to come and prove property pay charges and take him away, otherwise he will be disposed of as the law directs.

Missouri and Illinois Bounty Lands

THE subscriber has now for sale a number of the most valuable tracts, in both of those rich and improving bodies of lands, and can supply applicants with any number they may wish, and in any part of either territory. Every person who visits the Western Country, particularly those who intend settling there, should take with them a few quarter sections of those lands; every man who has a young and growing family, and can spare a few hundred dollars, should not miss the present opportunity of getting some of those lands; as it will insure to his children a greater certainty than any other investment he can possibly make for their benefit.—From the immense emigration to both Illinois and Missouri, particularly to the military lands, it is certain there must be a great rise in the price very soon, and those who miss the present opportunity, will never again have a chance to do so well. The patents will be sold very low, for cash, good notes or bonds at short dates, or bank stock in the Central Bank of Georgetown and Washington, and the Farmers and Mechanics' Bank of Georgetown. As I am a large dealer in Military Bounty Lands, I can supply any number that may be required.

Stone Ware.

JOHN SWANN, manufacturer of stone ware, in the town of Alexandria, respectfully informs his customers, that he has been enabled lately to make a great improvement in his ware, although it has been at considerable expense and labor, and he looks to a generous public for a support. He also would inform them, that he has on hand, at this time, a large assortment of ware, equal to any made in the United States. The merchants in the adjoining counties in Virginia will find it to their advantage in buying stone ware from him, as he is determined none shall sell lower than he does, his prices being at this time from 20 to 30 per cent. lower than they are in Baltimore; and he will warrant his ware to be of a good quality, which has been acknowledged by the very best judges of that article.

Merchants from the country leaving or sending their orders to Messrs. J. & J. Douglas; B. Hampson & Co.; or J. W. Massey; he will have them promptly filled up, and all orders thankfully received by

JOHN SWANN.

100 Dollars Reward.

RUNAWAY from the subscriber, on Saturday last, a negro man named

LEWEY.

This negro is about 20 years of age, very likely, of a very black complexion, about five feet ten inches high, and very spare. His clothes are not ecollected.—It is supposed that he took with him a fine cambric shirt, and a blue roundabout. It is probable that he will endeavor to make his way to Pennsylvania, and that he is in company with two others.

I will give Fifty Dollars for him, if taken in this county—One Hundred if taken out of it, and secured so that I get him again.

The editor of the Baltimore Telegraph will insert the above two weeks, and forward his account to this office for payment.

100 Dollars Reward.

I WILL give the above reward to any person who will return to my possession, negro LAWRENCE, who assumes the sirname of FENWICK. This fellow left my farm, on the Wicomico river, in Charles county, Md on the 6th July, in consequence of his own outrageous conduct towards my overseer. He is a negro of a fine erect figure, good features, a smooth black skin, rather above the middle stature, of a youthful appearance for one of thirty years of age, and of great plausibility and natural smartness. His ears grow remarkably close to his head, and on the inside of his lower lip he has a white mark or spot. I purchased him 4 years ago of the estate of Mrs. P. H. Courts, of this county. I am led (by circumstances which have come to my knowledge since he absconded,) to believe that he will endeavor to make his way to King George county, Va.; should he not take this route, he will probably be met with in the District of Columbia, or in the upper counties of this state, on his way to Pennsylvania. I apprehend he will change his name, and if committed to jail, refuse to state to whom he belongs, as the misconduct which preceded his departure, & his absconding, have all appeared since to have been premeditated. He took all his clothes with him, of which he had a large number; among them—a new bear-skin over-coat, a long close-bodied blue coat, a pair of striped jean pantaloons, one or more white waistcoats, besides many articles of coarse cloathing; these, however, he will probably exchange, or sell them for cash to defray his travelling expenses.

I will give the above reward to any person who will bring him home to me, or FIFTY DOLLARS if confined in jail, and notice given me, so that I recover him.—Should he be taken out of the state, I will also pay all reasonable costs and charges which may attend the bringing him home.

RAN off from my plantation on the 25th inst. a bright Mulatto Slave, named,

FREDERICK,

(commonly known by his associates as Frederick Bankhead.) He is about 25 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 10 inches high, active and intelligent, stammers a little when spoken to, with a large scar on his upper lip, grey eyes and curly hair, which he generally keeps cut and combed in fashion.—He had on when he ran away, brown linen trowsers and shirt, a leather apron and a checked handkerchief, red and blue, tied around his waist, a pair of New England sale shoes, no other clothing with him. I will give for him to be secured in any jail out of the state of Virginia, of District of Columbia, so that I get him again, 100 dols. If taken in Washington or Georgetown 30; if in Alexandria town or county, 50 dolls. or if in any town or county in Virginia, 50 dollars, and all reasonable charges, if delivered to me, or to the jailor of Fairfax county, who is authorised by this advertisement, to receive him, for safe keeping.

Missouri and Illinois Bounty Lands

THE subscriber has now for sale a number of the most valuable tracts, in both of those rich and improving bodies of lands, and can supply applicants with any number they may wish, and in any part of either territory. Every person who visits the Western Country, particularly those who intend settling there, should take with them a few quarter sections of those lands; every man who has a young and growing family, and can spare a few hundred dollars, should not miss the present opportunity of getting some of those lands; as it will insure to his children a greater certainty than any other investment he can possibly make for their benefit.—From the immense emigration to both Illinois and Missouri, particularly to the military lands, it is certain there must be a great rise in the price very soon, and those who miss the present opportunity, will never again have a chance to do so well. The patents will be sold very low, for cash, good notes or bonds at short dates, or bank stock in the Central Bank of Georgetown and Washington, and the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank of Georgetown. As I am a large dealer in Military Bounty Lands, I can supply any number that may be required.

Lands for Sale.

BY VIRTUE of a power of attorney from William S. Courts to the subscriber, will be sold at public sale, On WEDNESDAY, the 18th AUGUST, in Port Tobacco, that valuable tract of land whereon John H. Barnes at present resides called lying and being in Charles county Maryland, containing between three and four hundred acres. This land is handsomely situated, lying immediately on Matawoman Creek, at least one third of which is in wood, with a sufficient quantity of marsh land for grazing—that part of the land which is in cultivation is well adapted to the growth of corn, wheat and tobacco, and with proper care would be equal, if not superior to any land in that neighborhood.

Whitland and Cole,

ALSO,

At the same time and place, will be offered for sale the plantation at present in the occupancy of Francis & Sam'l Wheeler, lying about one mile from the above place, containing about four hundred acres. As it is presumed that persons wishing to purchase will first view the premises, it is thought unnecessary to give a more particular description thereof. The terms of sale will be as follows; viz. possession given on the first day of January next, at which time one third of the purchase money will be required, the remaining two thirds at one and two years the purchaser giving bond with approved security with interest.—Upon the payment of the whole purchase money, a sufficient deed will be executed to the purchaser.

For Sale,

A VALUABLE farm, distant from Alexandria about three or four miles, lying on the road leading to Mount Vernon, containing two hundred and twenty seven acres, more or less; from fifty to eighty acres of which is in good wood, and all lying well for improvement, having a proportion of up and bottom land. It is well watered in every part. There is on this land a beautiful situation for a dwelling house, surpassed by none in the neighborhood, commanding a fine view of Mount Vernon, Fort Washington, and the Potomac, and a very highly improved country around. Those wishing to view the land, are requested to apply to Walter H. Jenifer, esq. Clifton Lodge, Fairfax, county. The terms made known by application to the subscriber in Alexandria.

I P. THOMPSON.

One Hundred Dollars Reward.

ON Monday, the 28th June, eloped from Bell Isle, King George county, Virginia, two negro men, DAVID and JOHN. David is a black fellow, about forty years of age, rather below the middle size, has invariably a smile when spoken to, a good hand in the field, and a tolerable wagoner; his clothing, when he absconded, were an old felt hat, a double milled drab great coat, much worn, lined with red flannel, jacket and pantaloons of domestic cotton and yarn cloth, and a coarse linen shirt. David has a wife belonging to Mr. John Singer, who some years since moved from Culpeper county to Harrison county, Va. and for the last two years has been in habits of intimacy with a negro woman by the name of Rosel who was sold last fall, by Mrs. Berryman, of King George, to Mr. George Mason, of Gunston, Fairfax co. Va. it is probable he will attempt to get to one of these neighborhoods. Jack is a lively black fellow, about thirty years of age, of the middle size, a little bow legged, rather an awkward hand in the field, having been bred a house servant, at which he excells, rather a surly disposition, and by profession a Baptist. He has a father belonging to Mr. John B. S. Fitzhugh, near Falmouth, Stafford co. Va. and a wife and family belonging to Mr Thos. Fitzhugh, of Brenton, Prince William co. it is highly probable he is lurking in one of these neighborhoods; had on when he absconded, an old hat, a suit of domestic cloth cotton and yarn, and a brown linen shirt, and carried with him a suit of white domestic jeans. It is probable he and David will change their names and dress. FIFTY DOLLARS will be given for apprehending and securing in jail said negroes, or half for either, if taken in the state of Virginia, or District of Columbia; or the above reward, if taken out of the state, & all reasonable charges, if brought home to the subscriber's residence. Masters of vessels, and others, are forewarned from harboring or carrying off said negroes.

☞ An accident having occurred to the Printing Press has compelled us to issue the paper this morning printed only on one side.

PUBLIC PROMENADE.

In every well regulated city, it has, from time immemorial, been thought both politic and prudent, to set apart a certain portion of the public property as a public walk. When the mind of the industrious citizen is fatigued by business, and deadened by languor, it contemplates with peculiar delight, the return of every evening during the summer season, where it can find not only a relaxation from toils, and a renovation of spirits by a change of air and scene, but it is particularly fitted to the enjoyment of a polite and social intercourse, where the object of all who frequent such places, is to see and be seen—to please and be pleased—by a courteous and respectful deportment towards each other as friends and citizens.

In such an intercourse, we not only recognise an establishment well calculated to promote health and happiness, and to turn the course of the dissipated from taverns and gambling houses, to this most innocent and healthful walk; but at the same time, affording a very convenient occasion to gentlemen of business to see each other; thereby combining public utility with private convenience and interest, not omitting, that the presence of the ladies at such a place, and upon such an occasion, tends directly to soften, improve, and refine, not only the mind, but the manners of every gentleman, while at the same time, this refinement by example, being generally diffused, has a tendency to restrain and subdue the unruly and turbulent passions of men more unpolished, and ultimately effecting that high respect in all persons visiting the place, for decorum and urbanity, which so particularly distinguished the citizens of Athens from those of Sparta—a distinction well calculated to engage the best feelings of our neighbors and contemporaries in other cities.

It is to female society alone, that man is indebted for all his happiness, benevolence, forbearance, and suavity of manners; divest him of this virtuous and most interesting intercourse, and he at once sinks into his natural habits of moroseness and barbarity; nor is it at all difficult to account for the effect, when we reason upon the nature of evil or innocent associations, the deductions are readily drawn by the most common understanding.

England, ever famed for her public institutions, has never been unmindful of the comforts of her subjects, not only by public walks, but in every other way which the good & the wise thought conducive to health; and it is a fact, that the extreme heat of the summer, in this country, is often fatal to the health of infants, by destroying the tone of the stomach and alimentary canal, as well as producing many diseases of function in grown persons.—It is equally notorious, that but few of the inhabitants of this place, can leave their homes to travel, or to avail themselves of the country air.—Would not then this public walk tend, in a material degree, to check the ravages of summer diseases among children, and thereby save many a bitter pang to the tender and anxious parent? Who that ever felt the solicitude of a father or mother for the health of its innocent offspring, that would not contribute his mite to the attainment of an object so very desirable? and how small would be the contribution, when levied upon the property and people of the town.

Why then should the good people of Alexandria be unmindful of these benefits? The commercial consequence of the place—its contiguity to the general government—and the ease and facility of getting the ground required—with the additional advantage of a mineral spring in the very neighborhood of the spot, all combine not only to direct the public attention to this object, but to induce them to come forward and liberally patronize it.—No local situation can be superior to that on the East side of Washington, and North of Pendleton-street, and thence extending to the Spa spring, embracing from 4 to 6 acres of land, which might be purchased and paid for in annual instalments, and consequently it would bear very light upon the public purse; and, I believe I am warranted in saying, that there are several gentlemen who would liberally patronize it out of their own private funds.—The mineral properties of the water needs no illustration, as they are well known to the public.

These remarks are hastily and irregularly thrown together, presuming, that the subject, if ever taken up, will be discussed by persons who have much more ability and leisure to bestow upon it; and, consequently, this is a mere suggestion for the consideration of those inclined to give it reflection.

A FRIEND TO IMPROVEMENT.

Baltimore, August 9.

A gentleman who was coming here from Abingdon, on the Philadelphia road, was stopped this morning, about 8 or 9 miles from this city, by three men on foot, armed with pistols, and robbed of about nine dollars in specie, which one of them took from his pocket. We mention this as a caution to persons intending to travel in that direction, that they may be prepared.

CAUTION.

Twenty dollar Notes of the Franklin Bank of Baltimore are in circulation, of the genuine plate, but forged signatures. The public are cautioned to be careful in receiving any of that denomination.

The Niagara Patriot mentions, that the celebrated Mr. Gourlay has been removed from an upper room to one of the cells in Niagara jail.

Cattskill, (N. York) August 4.

THE LATE STORM.

The following are additional particulars of the effects of the late storm.

The body of Mr. Asa June, for whose safety, it was mentioned in our last, fears were entertained, was found about a mile below his house. The particulars of his death, as communicated to us are as follows: His dwelling being entirely surrounded by the water, he removed his family to a place of safety; but missing a little daughter, and believing her still in the house, he returned to her assistance; in attempting to leave the house a second time, he fell into a cavity which the force of the water had formed, and was carried away by the current. His daughter was among the number that first left the house in safety.

Among the settlements at the base of the Catskill mountains, the ravages of the storm were unprecedented. S. Root, esq. lost 70 merino sheep, which were swept off: together with quantities of his crops of grain, corn, &c. The tannery of Mr. T. Brent was completely destroyed. A grist mill of Mr. Jones was swept away, and his dam so entirely filled, as to be passed on foot.

At Wolcottsville, bout 6 miles west from this place, the greatest quantity of water fell—a small stream rose so rapidly, and to such a height as to sweep from its banks a distillery and plaster mill. The water, accompanied by the fragments of the distillery and mill, rushed with inconceiveable force against Mr. Wolcott's grist mill—in a short time it was completely undermined, and the following day fell to the ground. The scene is truly a desolate one.

The loss in that vicinity is estimated at 15,000 dols.

But among the phenomena attending this storm, the most singular may be witnessed at the village of Jefferson, about a mile from this place. That village is situated on an extensive plain, elevated perhaps 150 feet above this. On the southwest part of the plain, and where a small brook previously ran, the water struggling as it were for vent, rushed into the brook, forming almost instantaneously a gigantic and resistless stream, carrying trees, shrubs, and all things in its course, into a heap of promiscuous ruin in the valley below. The chasm formed by this inundation, is about 100 feet in depth, an average of 125 in width, and nearly 50 rods in length. At the paper-mill, in another part of the village, the injury was extensive. Two houses were undermined, their chimnies thrown down, and the gardens, fences &c destroyed.

The duration of the rain was about five hours. The average quantity of water that fell was not ascertained. Many believe the rain to have been caused by the bursting of the clouds surcharged with water attracted from the river as water spouts, as they are generally termed: and the suddenness of the fall of water, in some instances almost in one mass; the confined surface over which the rain extended, not more than six miles square; the great quantity that fell in the given time, swelling small streams, not 40 rods in length from their source to their termination, to overwhelming torrents, and lastly, the singular effects of the storm, give some plausibility to the conjecture. We have been informed by two persons who witnessed the fact, that three black and dense clouds were visible over the river, and that the water appeared to be drawn up to them in the form of an inverted cone. Admitting this to be the fact, we leave the natural philosopher to determine, whether or not the column of water may be discharged other than over the surface from whence it is drawn?

A fine writer has said, that "some discover a God only in storms, earthquakes and tempests." But who is so blind as not to find him there?

Boston, August 2.

We learn that on Monday night last, much damage was sustained in the western part of this state, from a violent and copious storm of rain. Westfield river rose higher than at any time for some years past, carried off many bridges, and desolated the fields. Two or three dwelling houses, and a barn in Chester village, were swept away. The turnpike road from Westfield to Chester has suffered extremely from the flood. Many bridges on other small streams were carried away, and much property was destroyed.

MISSOURI EXPEDITION.

Military Expedition to the Upper Missouri. The sixth regiment of infantry left Belle Fontaine on Sunday the 4th instant, in the steam boats Expedition, Johnson, and Jefferson, and a number of keel boats and barges, furnished with sails, wheels and oars.

The officers of the 6th attached to this expedition, are—

Col. Atkinson, Lt. Col. Snelling, Major Humphreys, Brevet Major Foster, Captains Reed, Bliss, Brevet Major Ketchum, Captains Hamilton, Boardman, Haile, Shaler, Brevet Major Livingston.

Lieutenants Wetmore, Staniford, Clark, Wilcox, Ellison, Keler, Bedel, M'Ilvain, Brown, Mansfield, Palmer, Durand—Surgeon Mower—Surgeon's Mate Nichol.

The officers of the rifle who have preceded the sixth infantry upon the same expedition are—

Col. Chambers, Lt. Col. Morgan, Adjt. Pentland, Quarter Master Palmer, Captains Martin, Magee, Riley, Gray.

Lieutenants Fields, Kavanaugh, Scott, Shannon, Keith.

Col. Atkinson commands the expedition.

Gen. Jesup accompanies it, to forward all the operations which depend upon the quarter master general's department.

Capt. T. F. Smith, of the rifle, goes up as assistant adjutant general.

Lieut. Talcott, of the engineers.

Major O'Fallon, U. S. agent to the Indians on the Missouri, had preceded in the Western Engineer, but it is understood that his duties are equally connected with the success of both expeditions.

A multitude of paragraphs in different newspapers, have assigned to Col. James Johnson, of Kentucky, a place of undefined and vague importance in this expedition. He in fact goes out with it, and we have taken some pains to ascertain the exact nature of his functions. We learn that he has contracted with the government to transport troops, provisions, and munitions of war; that he has chosen steam boats for the transport vessels; and that the terms of the contract are sufficiently advantageous to have induced any other citizen to have done the same without drawing upon his patriotic fund.

No doubt is entertained upon the capacity of the expedition to reach the Council Bluffs in the month of August. The whole will winter there, and will erect a permanent work, to be garrisoned by the 6th.—On the opening of the spring, the Rifle will proceed to the Mandan villages.

Some doubt is entertained upon the success of two of the steam boats; but it is believed that measures have been taken to prevent the loss from having any effect upon the progress of the expedition

Thus the public have at length the satisfaction to see fairly embarked this interesting expedition, on the success of which depends the accomplishment of such mighty objects for the American people—the transfer of the fur trade from the English to the Americans—the extinction of British influence among American Indians—and the opening of a direct intercourse with India by the Columbia and Missouri rivers.

The officers attached to the expedition are young men of the growth of the last war, distinguished for their professional character and gentlemanly deportment, and animated with all the zeal for the success of the enterprise which the interest of the country, and the honor of the administration which planned it, could require at their hands.

The name of Yellow Stone has been attached to this expedition, perhaps without much propriety. The Council Bluffs and the Mandan Villages are the only points indicated for military establishments. The former are but 650 miles above St. Louis, the latter 1,600. They are both in what is called the Upper Missouri. This distinction takes place from the mouth of the river Platte. The Missouri from thence undergoes a sensible change. Its course is more directly from the north, less obstructed with sawyers, and every way better adapted to navigation. The face of the country also undergoes a change. Woodland is more seldom seen; vast and level plains, covered with grass, stretch before the eye; and the winds blow in steady gales and breezes as upon the bosom of the ocean. The aspect of the heavens likewise announces the opening of a new region. The sky assumes a deeper blue; the sun shines with a brilliancy unknown further south; and the purity and transparency of the atmosphere gives a new flow to the spirits, and new powers to the vision. "The navigators of the Missouri regard the mouth of the Platte as sailors do the equinoctial line. All who had not passed it before were required to be shaved, unless they could compromise for a treat. From this point the traders enter what they call The Upper Missouri."—(Brackenridge.)

The mouth of the Platte is 600 miles above St. Louis.

Extract of a letter, dated, "Point-Petre, (Gaud.) 5th July, 1819.

"An ordinance having just appeared, that relates to the American trade, we hasten to transmit you a copy of the same, and request that in case you do not think fit to avail yourselves thereof, that you will give it publicity through the medium of your prints. You will notice that our ports are again open for the admission of rye flour and corn meal, in addition to other articles noted at foot. Superfine flour is excluded and admissible only in French bottoms from the U. States, till October next. As relates to the export of sugars as set forth in said ordonance, we will observe, that, although it is said that the lowest qualities only will be allowed to be shipped, we are assured by the custom-house that assorted sugars will be permitted, say 1st 2d 3d, an equal proportion of each. This assurance, we believe, may be relied on, as we have it from the Collector, who seems disposed to favor the American trade as much as possible.

"Our markets are not very inducing to adventurers for the moment, but we think they will advance as we approach the hurricane months, when provisions generally become more in demand. We annex you our quotation of the day."

Musrovado Sugars, 1st quality, 6 dols. 50 cents; 2d ditto 5; 3d ditto 4—Molasses, 22 cents—Rum 44.

ARTICLES ADMISSIBLE.

Rye flour, 6 50—corn meal 6 dols. per bbl. 34 per hhd.—codfish, 7 dols.—mackarel, 11—herrings, 6—rice 6—tobacco, 15 dols., large leaf—beef, 17 dols.—rosin 5—tar 5—sperm. oil, 75 cents—corn, yellow 6 dols.—staves, 50 dols.—hoops, 50 dols. Lumber—W. P. 24 dols.; P. P. 32—shingles, 22 in. 7 dols.

[The following is the substance of the ordinance alluded to above:—From the 1st July, 1819, vessels of the United States of America are allowed to export from the ports of Point Petre and Bassaterre, (Guadaloupe,) Sugars of an inferior quality, not to exceed 5000 casks or five millions of pounds; and they are allowed to import in addition to the articles heretofore permitted, flour of Rye and Corn.] [Patriot.

FROM BERMUDA.

By the schooner Sally, captain Fisher, from Bermuda, we received the St George's Bermudian, to the 14th ult. inclusive; from one of which the following article is extracted.

St. George's, (Ber.) June 30.

A gentleman in the Brisk, from Jamaica, brings the following intelligence:—On Friday the 28th ult. at about 2 o'clock in the morning, commenced a strong gale from the N. E. and veered to the N. W. which lasted six or eight hours, and did considerable damage to vessels on the north side of the island. The ship Henry was stranded at Rio Bueno—no lives lost—cargo and rigging will be saved. Damage is done to sundry vessels in Falmouth Harbor to the amount of 2 or 3000l. No vessels materially injured at Montego Bay, and it did not rage with such violence on the south side. Colonial produce on the decline—rum from 3s 6d to 3s 9d cash.—Sugars 8 to 9 dollars. Pimento 8 to 9d per lb. Coffee from 5l. 6s. 8d. to 7l. 15s.—No scarcity of American produce.

Extract of a letter from captain William Farney, of the schr. Harmony, from New York, dated Port-au-Prince, July 18th, 1819—

"I have been unfortunate with my crew. David Munson, son of Elihu Munson, esq. of New-Haven, was buried the 14th. I have one other now sick. My cook, a black man, they pressed on board their frigate—therefore have but two men beside my mate and myself, and I have been quite unwell for three days past, but feel something better this morning. This is a disagreeable place.—Flour has been and now is high—it sold five days since at 24 dollars, pork 30 dollars. There was an arrival yesterday from Baltimore, but I have not heard what she has in."

SALEM, (Mass.) August 3.

The 'Gloucester Hoax' acting over again; or Capt. Rich's 'Horse Mackerel' on a visit to Marblehead.

The Southerners may continue to laugh at Yankee credulity; but we have another story to tell of the Sea Serpent, which has been such a fruitful source of mirth and wit to them, and in whose existence many respectable persons here are constrained to believe, or deny their own senses.

Yesterday at 7 o'clock, A. M. Mr. Benjamin Stone, living at Marblehead Neck, saw from his farm, near Inner Pig Rock and not more than 200 yards from the beach, something that he took for a number of porpoises, following one after another. The novelty excited his attention, when the whole immediately disappeared, and in less than a minute came up together again; he now discovered it to be an animal of an extraordinary length; he had an opportunity of viewing him from that time until about 11 o'clock, part of the time with Mr. John Hathaway, of Marblehead farms. The creature appeared to move very slow, and circularly, with his head partly under water; and at times Mr. H. thinks he could see about twenty protuberances. Mr. H. at first, as he expresses himself, was a little fluttered. At half past 12 o'clock, the hon. Wm. Read, Mr. John Humphreys, and several other gentlemen, of respectability, saw distinctly, the same animal, through a glass, lying west of Tinker's Island, and distinctly noticed the protuberances on his back, so often described; from the ripples in the water, his length appeared to be at least 100 feet.—He was also seen by several men on Tinker's Island, who communicated the same to Mr. Stone. Several boats and sloops being becalmed near, must also have seen the same object all the time of his being near the beach, the water was entirely unruffled, and Mr. S. says he could have seen a loon twice the distance.
